

DEED OF GIFT

Between the European Committee for Homeopathy (hereinafter called ECH), represented by the President, Dr Thomas Peinbauer (hereinafter called the donor),

And the Institute for the History of Medicine of the Robert Bosch Stiftung, Stuttgart (hereinafter called IGM), Straussweg 17, 70184 Stuttgart, represented by the Deputy Head, Prof Dr Martin Dinges,

the following is agreed:

§ 1 - The donor transfers ownership of the records of the ECH (cf. attached list, included in the deed of gift) to the IGM. ECH bears the cost of transportation.

§ 2 - The IGM commits itself to manage and care for the records according to professional standards and to make the collection open and available for research use. This includes an overview of the records as well as publication of the inventory on the website of the IGM.

§ 3 - The use for scientific research purposes is only permitted after prior written approval of the ECH Board.

§ 4 – Transfer of ownership to third parties is prohibited. If the IGM should be without legal successor, then the records will be returned to the donor.

Linz, on .....

Stuttgart, on .....

Donor

IGM

ARCHIVE OF THE INSTITUTE FOR THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE OF THE ROBERT BOSCH STIFTUNG GMBH

REGULATIONS FOR USE

1. Purpose

---

The Archive of the Institute for the History of Medicine of the Robert Bosch Stiftung serves the purpose of scientific research.

2. Use

---

1. The archive is accessible by appointment only.
2. The use will be considered upon written application, whereby the object of research should be described as accurately as possible and the scientific purpose needs to be identified.
3. The Institute for the History of Medicine of the Robert Bosch Stiftung decides on the kind of use, e.g. producing archival records, providing information etc.
4. The Archive needs to be given a written declaration that, in utilization of archival records copyrights and personal rights are respected.
5. Special permission is required for the involvement of persons assisting in the use of the Archive; the names of these assistants need to be specified in the form "Application for use of ECH Archives". The applicant shall be liable for the assistants.

3. Special Regulations for Use

---

1. As a general rule, only files in the archives which are older than thirty years can be consulted.
2. For archives which were created for natural persons, the regulations of paragraph 5 chapter 2 of the German Federal Archive Act are applicable.
3. Reproduction of archives requires written permission.
4. One copy of every printed or web publication that results from consultation of the archival records needs to be put unsolicited and free of charge at the disposal of the Archive.